We want everyone to have a safe experience on Twitter.

APNGs were fun, but they don't respect autoplay settings, so we're removing the ability to add them to Tweets. This is for the safety of people with sensitivity to motion and flashing imagery, including those with epilepsy. twitter.com/TwitterSupport...

Twitter Support  @TwitterSupport

We recently found a bug that lets you add multiple animated images to a Tweet using Animated PNG files. APNGs ignore our safeguards and can cause performance issues for the app and your device. Today we're fixing the bug which will no longer allow APNGs to animate when Tweeted.
